

Stockton Scholars Appeal Form

You have indicated that you do not meet one of the Stockton Scholars eligibility requirements. If you would like your scholarship application to be considered, you must submit the following requested information in addition to your completed application by March 2, 2019 at 11:59 PM PST.

Please select all Stockton Scholars Eligibility Requirements that you do not meet. *

- Have attended an eligible Stockton Unified high school (link) for four years and are on track to graduate by the end of their senior year
- Have a 2.0 unweighted overall high school GPA
- Complete the FAFSA or DREAM ACT application by the March 2 Cal Grant deadline and apply for two additional grants or scholarships
- Plan to pursue a degree and enroll full-time at a college, university, or regionally accredited trade school

In the textbox below, please explain in 500 words or less the extenuating circumstance that resulted in you not meeting the Stockton Scholars eligibility requirements and why you should still be considered to receive our grant. You will only have one opportunity to appeal and appeal decisions cannot be contested.

Please upload any relevant documentation below that serves as proof of your circumstance. Common documentation includes proof of refugee status, homeless/unaccompanied status, letter from homeless liaison, emergency/runaway/homeless shelter, etc., foster care status, ward of the court letter or letter from a transitional living program.

I certify that all of the information I have provided in my scholarship application and/or appeal form is true. I understand that all of the information I submit with my Richmond Promise Scholarship Application and Appeal Form will be shared with the Richmond Promise's Appeals Committee in order to determine whether my appeal will be granted.
